

In the news

Bunbury Mail

13 April 2011

Green homes

SUMMIT Homes has set a new benchmark for energy efficiency by becoming the first West Australian builder to commit to a minimum six Star energy rating on all homes.

The company adopted the policy last month to bring the company into line with national standards.

The six-star rating will become a mandatory State requirement next year.

Perth Metro: 9333 0888
South West: 9722 0300

