Summit Realty is tempting buyers this month with their Seven Deadly Sins series.

Summit Homes tempt buyers

SUMMIT Homes hopes to tempt homebuyers looking for a new home at a wicked price this month.

Its Seven Deadly Sins series was inspired by Summit's seven most popular display models, said company general manager David Hunt.

Summit has created the promotion of biblical proportions with its display home names now appearing as the seven deadly sins such as lust, envy, indulgence and extravagance.

Two of the homes are located in the Bunbury area – Lust in Dalyellup and Extravagance in Millbridge.

"Whatever a home buyers' desire, we are excited to present the perfect designs to satisfy," Mr Hunt said.

Mr Hunt said the homes were of quality design and "present wicked value" as they included four bedrooms and two bathrooms, multiple living areas and a covered alfresco.

Mr Hunt said the homes would suit astute buyers who were looking for quality designs, finishes and specifications without the hellish price tag.

"We have listened to our customers and responded with a series of designs that offer heavenly value for money," he said.

Home prices start from $176,995 during the month long promotion.
