SUMMIT OF LOVE

Too groovy baby! Summit Homes hosted its annual dinner for staff and partners, under the clever moniker The Summit of Love, on Friday night. The Perth Convention and Exhibition Centre was overrun with colourful 60s madness as 500 guests emblazoned in peace signs and sporting beehives, paisley and flares rocked up for a night of retro fun hosted by Austin Powers and Felicity Shagwell. The dance floor also provided a feast of psychedelia as they showed their moves to the sounds of the Fabfour.
